Free Europe Group Elects Head

Archibald S. Alexander

The Free Europe Committee yesterday elected Archibald S. Alexander, former Under Secretary of the Army, president. He will succeed Lieut. Gen. Willis D. Crittenger, retired, who has resigned effective Feb. 1.

Mr. Alexander is 52 years old, lives in Bernardsville, N. J., and is a lawyer. He served as an Army Department official from 1949 to 1952. He was State Treasurer of New Jersey in 1954 and 1955.

The Free Europe Committee is a private nonprofit organization that operates Radio Free Europe, makes daily broadcasts to Soviet satellites and publishes information about East Europe.
